Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

WHEREAS, Major General Philip G. Killey's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

WHEREAS, We have very few occasions to recognize these patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

WHEREAS, Major General Killey has devoted almost forty years of his life to the service of this country and state; and,

WHEREAS, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

WHEREAS, Major General Killey continues to give of himself; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend Major General Philip G. Killey for almost forty years of dedicated and outstanding service to this country and state:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 1, 2003, as

MAJOR GENERAL PHILIP G. KILLEY DAY in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and the United States.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighteenth Day of February in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
